Objective

The online conference will address the barriers that persons with disabilities still face when accessing justice in practice, in particular persons deprived of their legal capacity and obliged to act through an appointed legal guardian. This conference will provide a forum for discussion of the challenges involved in the application of key notions of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, relevant EU law and the European Convention of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, as well as of best practice in the field.

Who should attend?

Judges, prosecutors and lawyers, Member State officials, legal staff of NGOs, equality bodies and national human rights institutions, disability rights advocates.

You will be able to...

- understand the legal requirements connected to access to justice under the UNCRPD;
- learn about the recent developments in international case law related to persons with disabilities;
- make sure that legal capacity and access to justice are in no way hindered in court proceedings involving persons with disabilities;
- solve legal issues associated with the right to liberty and security of persons with disabilities;
- learn how to protect and safeguard the rights of persons with disabilities in court proceedings.

What participants said in during our UNCRPD series of seminars

"High quality lectures"

"Professional, interesting, useful"

"It is a great way to increase your knowledge and to meet with colleagues from other countries"

"Perfectly organised"
